THE IMPORTANCE OF CONGRESSIONAL AID TO THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILWAY.

BY NEWELL F. HOWARD.

[The following article, which we shall have to divide in two portions, we take from the Alta Californian, published in San Francisco. Nothing is of so much importance to the future of Memphis, as the Southern Pacific Railroad, which will place it on the coast, if not the nearest route between the Atlantic and Pacific:]

It is a general remark that for the last ten years California has not made as much progress in population as her previous history seemed to indicate. Our great difficulty has been the want of means of cheap and rapid transportation from the Atlantic to the Pacific. This means will doubtless be partially furnished by the Great Central Atlantic and Pacific Railroad when completed. It cannot, however, meet the full wants of the country, either as to travel or freight. The vast region from Arizonia to Washington Territory cannot be supplied by one railway. Wherever these roads are constructed they will augment the business, commerce and growth of San Francisco. Whoever looks at a globe or map of the world will perceive that the United States is in the center of the population, business and commerce of the nations. That in time New York will only be second to London in commercial importance, and San Francisco second only to New York. Whatever opens up and settles the region between the Pacific and the Mississippi, augments the growth of San Francisco as well as that of the entire country. The city, therefore, has a direct interest in the development of the whole country.

CALIFORNIA TO BE CONNECTED WITH THE SOUTH BY RAILWAY.

It is confidently anticipated that the Central road, in the progress of construction at this time, will be completed through in two years and a half, meeting at Salt Lake.

It would appear that the people of the Southern States are much more alive to the importance of the Central and Southern routes to the Pacific than we of California.

An article in the August number of De Bow's Review, speaking of the exertion of the Southern people to extend their railroad system, says: "Perhaps in most extensive of these new enterprises are in Texas. Since the close of the war great activity has been manifested in this particular in that State, and at present there are within its limits not less than twelve hundred miles of road in process of construction. Some of these lines are of great importance, and will open up the resources of the richest part of the State to commerce. The Texas Central, to be finished probably in 1865, traverses a rich wheat growing region, and will ultimately connect with the Indian Nation, soon to be opened to civilization, with Kansas and with the Great Pacific line to California. Branch lines are to be built to Galveston and Houston, and thence to New Orleans, thus bringing the almost boundless resources of the interior of Texas within reach of the Gulf ports."

"The Virginia railroad and canal enterprises, although of the highest importance, on account of their influence in developing the resources of the country, are only subsidiary to a still grander project, that is intended to divert to Richmond a portion of the commerce of the Pacific. Richmond has now direct communication with Memphis. The railroad from Memphis to Little Rock, Arkansas, will be finished in a few months. A Texas company has undertaken the task of building a road that will unite Northern Texas and the Rio Grande with Arkansas. Gen. Fremont has been diligently engaged in opening up the mineral lands, and with the right to select other lands in place of the mineral lands and previous locations.

AGRICULTURAL AND MINERAL RESOURCES ON THIS ROUTE.

The route from Van Buren, on the Arkansas, which at that point will connect with Memphis, on the Mississippi, by way of Little Rock, and from Van Buren to the Canadian, and thence to Santa Fe and Albuquerque, is one of the best in the United States. There are few routes of the same length that pass through a country that will admit of a denser settlement.

The official report of the Secretary of War, of 1865, says of this route by the thirty-fifth parallel:

"The general features which have determined the position of this route, the exploration of which was conducted by Lieut. A. W. Whipple, Topographical Engineer, are the intersection, west and east, of the interlocking tributaries of the Mississippi, the Rio Grande and the Colorado of the West. It would appear to possess also a greater yearly amount of rain than the regions immediately north and south of it; and as a consequence, a better supply of fuel and timber."

"The principal characteristics of this route, in comparison with others, are its passing through or near more numerous cultivable areas, its more abundant natural supply of water as far west as the Colorado, and the greater frequency and extent of forest growth on the route between the Rio Grande and the Colorado." Several citizens of Los Angelos, among others Judge Dryden and Dr. Winston, have passed over this route, the former repeatedly, from Van Buren to Santa Fe and Albuquerque, and concur in saying that it is a fine agricultural and grazing country, capable of large settlements, and sustaining a numerous population. In this they but sustain the United States engineers and railroad explorers. In the report of those who have traveled it that the country through the Indian Nation and on the Arkansas, for the first four or five hundred miles, is equal to any portion of the valley of the Mississippi.

Lieut. Whipple, in his report on the route by the 35th parallel, says: "Following the south bank of the Canadian river for nearly one-third of the whole distance to the Pacific, we pass into the valley of the Rio Grande del Norte, near the center of New-Mexico, where the soil is most fertile, the population is most numerous, and the mines are the most productive of any part of this interior portion of our possessions."

Upon the subject of fuel, timber, minerals and products along this route, Lieut. Whipple reports: "The mineral resources of Arkansas are worthy of consideration. Lead, copper, silver and iron are said to be abundant. The iron mountains near the Mi-souri line are alone worthy a railroad. Beds of ore of great extent crop out at various points near the river Arkansas. The veins are thick and easily worked, the quality is excellent, and the mines apparently inexhaustible. Extensive quarries of roofing slate, found here, are now supplying the markets of Cincinnati and St. Louis. Timber of the best quality for purposes of a railway this country furnishes in abundance."

Of the central and western portion of the route he says:

"Notwithstanding the richness of the mines of gold, silver, copper, and of iron, the deposits of coal that have been discovered in New Mexico have a more direct and practicable bearing upon the project of a railroad. The mountains east and west of the Rio Grande, the Sandia and Manzana ranges, as well as the Sierra Madre, furnish a large supply of superb firs for timber. But the excellent coal which is said to crop out of the Carunnel Pass, and in the famous basin, Cibolleta, would, with railroad transportation, afford a large supply of this necessary commodity. Hence, with increase of population, the development of the precious metals, the manufacture of wine, and the produce of wool and other articles, will furnish rich freights east and west, in exchange for fabrics of every kind, and luxuries required from the older States.

West of the Rio del Norte, a ridge easily crossed, brings us to the Rio Puerco, a branch called San Jose, passing beds of coal, leads by a gradual ascent to the summit of the Sierra Madre.

The route across the Sierra Madre passes forests of excellent timber."

The report shows the country from the Rio Grande to the Colorado to be an excellent route for a railway, through a region capable of great development, and abundantly supplied with timber. As he approached the Colorado on this route, Lieut. Whipple banks out into raptures: "What we saw of this country was full of interest to each department of science. There were extensive forests, abounding with game; wide grass valleys, affording pasturage to innumerable herds of deer; crystal creeks alive with trout; their fertile banks once cultivated, and now lined with ash and walnut timber. From the heights were frequently seen, looking down upon us, the fleet cimaron, or mountain goat. That this solitude had not always been unbroken by man was shown by the numerous stone houses that lined the borders of the streams, and the still high walls of extensive fortifications that covered the heights surrounding. We traversed this region in winter, but the climate was of spring, and vegetation already rapidly advancing. It was a beautiful view that burst upon us as we ascended a hill and first beheld the Colorado sweeping from North to West, to unite with Bill Williams' Fork, almost beneath our feet. One long and loud huzza burst spontaneously from the men, sending a thrill through every nerve."

This description shows what has since been fully ascertained, that there is more rain in the vicinity of the thirty-fifth parallel than either north of it or south, west of the Colorado. It is stated in Whipple's report that the Zuni Indians and those on the Colorado where crossed, raised good crops without irrigation. There is a good farming region on the headwaters of the Gila, which visited in the summer by the tropical rains which pass over Sonora. The settlers recently established in the vicinity of Prescott speak of the summer showers that are often violent, and render the grass and vegetation green for the year round.

Lieut. Beale, in his more recent explorations in 1859, thus sums up the advantages of this route: "Without intending to draw invidious comparisons between the various routes from our Western border to the Pacific ocean in favoring the thirty fifth parallel, I think I may with safety, say that none other offers the same facilities for either wagon or railroad. It is the shortest, the best timbered, the best grassed, the best watered, and, certainly, in point of grade, better than any other line between the two oceans with which I am acquainted. For the first of these assertions an inspection of the map is quite sufficient proof; for the second, I rely upon the report of Lieut. Whipple and my own observations, and especially my last explorations, which, by the discovery of the pine timbered region of Bill Williams' Mountain, enable me to state that the thirty-fifth parallel road carries an abundance of cedar and pine to within forty miles of the State line of California, which, on the same parallel, there is abundance in the whole Sierra Nevada (San Bernardino) range. For the third proposition, I rely upon the concurrent testimony of all who have traveled the route in comparison with other trans-continental routes, who agree with me that it is habitable throughout. For the fourth assertion, I think there can be no better proof than the fact that water is at but one point thirty miles distant, and for the last assertion I rely upon the profile of the country which has been prepared from the instrumental observations of my two explorations."

It is estimated that on this route the "wood, land, cultivatable, and pasture, is eighty-two per cent; rocky hills, barren and sandy deserts, eighteen per cent." It would be difficult to find any route of the same extent over a more productive country.

BARBARISM IN ILLINOIS.

The Shelby County Poor Farm—A Sickening Picture of Vice, Barbarism and Ignorant Brutality.

From the Decatur (Ill.) Magnet, Jan. 30.]

A committee was lately appointed by the Shelby county Supervisors to examine and inquire into the condition of the Poor Farm. The committee was accompanied by the editor of the Commercial, who describes the horrid and revolting picture of the horrid sights witnessed in that institution. It has been an abode of woe, famine and torture, the unfortunate inmates suffering slow, miserable deaths! They were found huddled together like beasts in a filthy shed, freezing and starving! During the examination a half idiot boy was found with black and frozen feet, mortification had set in, owing to the insufficiency of clothing and shelter; the snow and sleet beat upon his bed—the blankets were too short and thin to cover his feet, and they were frozen! The catalogue of horrors enumerated is enough to sicken the reader, and make him wonder if we are really live in the humane and enlightened nineteenth century. The stolid, brutal wretch who thus commits these crimes upon his helpless victims, is richly deserving of the gallows, and every believer in righteous retribution will only regret that the rack and thumb-screw of the middle ages cannot be revived, so that the unnatural monster might be adequately and fitly punished.

The following fearful summing up of charges we transfer to our columns, in the hope that the pious and benevolent people of Central Illinois will perceive that missionary work is of far more urgent need here in our own midst than among the Cannibals or Hottentots:

The paupers are fed on coarse corn bread, fat pork and rye coffee; no butter, milk, nor sugar. Sick or well, the diet is the same. Their washing is done by a crazy pauper named Eliza Jane Tilley, who also waits on the table and washes the dishes. Her filthy practices in performing these duties are of such a disgusting nature that decency compels us to withhold them. The neighbors have seen her two-thirds nude, standing at the wash-tub in front of Price's house, and before his family and the other paupers. She has but one ragged dress—nor have any of the female paupers a change of clothing. Up to a short time ago, the male and female paupers have mingled indiscriminately, day and night, in the one shed we spoke of. Upon several occasions a beastly pauper named Webster and the idiot girl Tilley were discovered * * *. A pauper named Wm. Johnson, a thin, sickly, emaciated boy, was cruelly beaten with a large stick, a few days ago, by the keeper's wife, upon a very trifling provocation.

Blackguardism, profanity and rowdyism is the daily programme of the Shelby county Poor Farm.

No preacher of the Gospel has ever been called there, no religious devotions have ever been held there; the dead are buried without ceremony there; and, reader, go there, if you would find a hell on earth; go there, if you would learn the details of the most damnable, blackening shame that ever disgraced any community.

A few weeks ago a half-crazed girl named Lizzie Watkins died, and in a new shroud which came down only to her knees, was put in a coffin and carted down to the woods, buried beside the road, and her grave covered with brush. No religious ceremonies were performed, no slab shows her resting place, and over it and around it graze the cattle and wallow the hogs, which roam at large through the forest.

We could disclose many more disgraceful facts, but forbear for the present.

The above is so true that thirteen witnesses stand ready to substantiate it on oath.

Prurient Publications in Boston.

The Boston correspondent of the New York Times says:

Within a stone's throw, almost, of Cornhill, where religious tracts, Sunday school books and a dozen denominational newspapers are published, there is issued weekly one of the most sensational sheets in the country; and to judge by the very large edition it throws off, one would think that a prurient curiosity had entirely absorbed the reading community. The toleration of this sort of "information," overflowing with voluptuous illustrations and other designs calculated to gratify the sensual eye, is to be wondered at, notwithstanding our clergymen denounce it every Sabbath from the pulpit. Those show windows that attract the largest crowds are filled with this stuff, and, to the shame of the sex, among its regular patrons are young girls and old women, who, if they do not purchase it publicly, secure it clandestinely. The proprietor of one of these sheets pays to a single artist $4000 a year for designs. How much he pays his "subjects" is another matter entirely. The prurient publications here share the religious press out of countenance. The rising generation is certainly being treated to immoral "impressions."

QUINCY, Ill., November 5 1866.

MRS. JACKSON, Dear Madam—It is with pleasure that I certify to you, that seeing one of your circulars, which contained certificates and indorsements from the best physicians and citizens of Quincy, and reading the testimonial set forth that your oils for the complexion and teeth were purely the oils, extracts and essences of flowers, and they used them when used according to directions to cure the worst and most difficult cases of nursing sore mouth, canker of the stomach, bowels and dyspepsia. For scrofulous disorders, when used both internally and externally, it has no equal. Dear Madam, seeing this, and my little daughter, aged fifteen months, having the whooping cough for several months, seldom asleep with what the doctors call white canker, her mouth and throat being terribly ulcerated, and having tried everything for its relief I could hear of, all to no purpose, I bought one bottle of your oil for the complexion, called "Queen Bess," went according to the directions, did not use quite one bottle, and I am most happy to state to you that it has cured my child. She is now as well and hearty as ever she was in her life. I give you this, my certificate, hoping you will publish it, that thousands of others who may be afflicted with any of the above affections may at once get a bottle of your "Queen Bess," for I feel sure they will find immediate relief.

Yours respectfully,
MRS. G. O. WOLCOTT.

MRS. WM. R. COLLINS' CERTIFICATE.

HANNIBAL, MO., August 22, 1866.

MRS. JACKSON, Dear Madam—I am most happy to inform you that after having suffered more than three years with what some physicians call nursing sore mouth, canker of the mouth and throat, I tried various remedies, but found nothing to do me any good until I heard of your oils for the complexion and teeth, called "Queen Bess." I bought one bottle, went according to directions, and am most thankful to say I have found a permanent cure. Hoping you will publish this, that other poor sufferers may be benefitted by it, I remain,

Yours respectfully,
MRS. WM. R. COLLINS.

EXTRA. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE FOR THE DISTRICT OF WEST TENNESSEE

The following named gentlemen are hereby appointed a Central Executive Committee for the District of West Tennessee:

SHELBY COUNTY.—M. D. L. Stewart, Alfred T. Lacey, Jesse W. Page.
WEAKLEY COUNTY.—William P. Caldwell.
DYER COUNTY.—Charles Gibbs.
GIBSON COUNTY.—Wise A. Cooper.
MADISON COUNTY.—W. W. Gates.
HARDEMAN COUNTY.—Judge Miller.
MCNAIRY COUNTY.—S. L. Warren.

With full power to appoint a Congressional Executive Committee for the 7th and 8th Congressional Districts of the State, with power to appoint Executive Committees for the several counties composing their respective Congressional Districts.

By order of the State Central Executive Committee of the Conservative party for the State of Tennessee.

COL. WM. S. BARRY, OF MISSISSIPPI

Col. WM. S. BARRY, of Columbus, Miss., died of consumption a few days since at his residence in that city. Col. BARRY gained an enviable distinction as an officer, in the Confederate service, during the late war, but was still more widely known as a man of bright genius, a highstrung statesman, a pleasing orator and a scholar of good attainments. He was a graduate of Yale College, and soon after his graduation was elected as a Representative in the Legislature of Mississippi, from Oktibbeha county, where he ranked as one of the most able members of the House of Representatives of 1850, which was composed of such men as ROGER BARTON, PATRICK HENRY, PATTON ANDERSON, JOHN J. MCRAE, KIT MOTT, G. F. NEILL, and numbers of other bright intellects. The lamented QUITMAN was then Governor. Afterwards Col. BARRY was elected to Congress and served through several terms, with high promise of fame and usefulness.

The war came on and he raised a regiment, which he commanded through all the hard campaigns of the army of Tennessee gaining the respect and confidence of his men, and returning to the pursuits of private life at its close. A bright intellect has gone out and a great soul taken its flight. May he rest in peace.

ALABAMA.

The returns from this State have not yet been received in such force as to warrant a conclusion as to the result. The appointed days of election were the 4th and 5th inst., but it having been ascertained that the vote was far below the estimate deemed necessary to carry the infamous so-called Constitution, the polls were again opened and the troops of negroes that had been imported to constitute the active voters of the State, deemed sufficient to counterbalance the redoubt white men, were driven to double duty. If another day could be added, why not as many as required to enable the trained bands to be marched over the State, and deposit a sufficient number of votes to carry the Constitution? It is said the five additional days were given to five counties, that being considered enough for the purpose. In view of defeat, the Radicals began to howl about intimidation, but the North Alabamian, very radically inclined, says:

The freedmen came in and voted and deported in a respectful manner, conducted themselves well, did not abuse the privilege by boasting of it, or by using it in any other way distasteful to the whites. The reports of violence being used to prevent a fair expression of opinion in voting, is wholly incorrect. We never knew an election to go off more quietly in our lives.

The same paper speaks also for the rest of the Northern part of the State:

As far as heard from in other parts of North Alabama, everything went off quietly, which reflects great credit upon our people.

That this is not a partial witness may be judged from the fact that it was in favor of the Constitution. It says:

It is defeated unless South Alabama has voted a larger vote than east last October for the Convention. This will have a tendency to provoke further legislation on the part of Congress. We had hoped, with this election, that the doubt and uncertainty of our future would have ended.

It is confidently asserted that the white vote was in the ratio of one white vote to 150 negroes. We hope our Northern friends who are averse to negro suffrage will survey this field. The real white men of Alabama would not vote at all.

DYERSBURG NEWS.

A gentleman from Dyersburg says that everything is quiet in that section of the State at present; and that Sheriff Tarkington's posse are quietly resting on their arms waiting for something to turn up. Nashville Press and Times.

And yet the squandering Legislature authorized Tarkington to pay his posse three dollars per day as it appears now to be "quietly resting on their arms." Better that than robbing hen-roosts.

TENNESSEE ITEMS.

—A negro's skull was found with the wool and brain in their normal condition, in the water along the banks of Lick Branch, Nashville, a day or two ago.

—The Nashville Gazette says: Capt. John Wilson yesterday handed us an egg measuring three inches in length and five in circumference. It was laid by a hen in his possession which is a cross breed between a Shanghai and the common chicken."

—A correspondent of the Louisville Journal writes: "We met yesterday, at Union City, Tenn., the party engaged in surveying the new road from Mayfield, Ky., to Jackson, Tenn. Among the party was our accomplished young friend Tucker Harris, formerly of your city, but now of Paducah. The State of Tennessee has voted ten thousand dollars per mile to the road. It leaves the New Orleans and Ohio road at Mayfield, connecting with the Mississippi Central at Jackson, Tenn., making an air-line from Paducah to New Orleans."

—The colored churches in Nashville are said to have at this time religious revivals.

—On the 22d inst., the people of Wilcounty, Tenn., will vote upon the position to subscribe three hundred and dollars stock in the Lebanon Gallatin railroad. The canvass in that county is said to be very exciting.

—Brownlow has appointed Capt. Boone Aid de-Camp, with the rank of Colonel, with authority to muster up the unsettled business of the militia department.

—There is a convict in the penitentiary sentenced for one year on the charge of stealing one bushel of wheat. He was sent from Grainger county.

—Edward Maynard, son of Hon. Horace Maynard, of Tennessee, died at Turk's Island, January 10th, after a short illness, in the twenty-fifth year of his age.

—A house and lot were sold in Edgfield, on Saturday, for $18,000.

—Mrs. Arthur and her mother returned to Nashville, from Louisville, on Saturday. Dr. Stephens continued on his way to Cincinnati.

—The Nashville Chamber of Commerce has fixed a bushel as follows: Dried apples, 26; barley, 48; beans, 60; buckwheat, 52; corn, shelled, 56; corn, unshelled, 70; bran, 20; corn meal, 50; hominy, 60; oats, 33; onions, 56; peas, 60; pea nuts, 23; potatoes, Irish, 60; potatoes, sweet, 50; dried peaches, peeled, 40; dried peaches, unpeeled, 26; rye, 56; salt, 30; seed—clover, 60; timothy, 45; flax, 56; blue grass, 14; millet, 50; hemp, 14; orchard grass, 14; herd's grass, 44; red top, 14; wheat, 60; malt, 34.

—Joseph Conn, a negro, was bound over to answer, at the next term of the Davidson Criminal Court, on the charge of stealing two sows and eight pigs from a colored neighbor and selling them.

—The Nashville Gazette says: Capt. Brown, the defaulting Paymaster of Brownlow's State militia, is a cousin of Abraham Lincoln, and was appointed Assistant Quartermaster by Old Abe, at Nashville, during the war.

GENERAL ITEMS.

—On the 21st ult., Mr. James Ethrige, while hunting near Cassville, Barry county, Missouri, found a mail-bag split open and the contents scattered around. From the post marks on the letters it was supposed to be a through mail from Fort Smith, Arkansas, to St. Louis, and is have left the former place about September 10th.

—It is understood that Mr. Dickens will not visit the West. He will repeat his readings in Philadelphia and New York. From New York he will go to Buffalo, returning east via Syracuse, Rochester and Albany, concluding his engagements in the larger cities of the New England States, and will return home in the latter part of April.

—On the 31 inst., Messrs. A. O. Smith & Co., of St Joseph, Missouri, contracted to deliver to Government six hundred barrels of their mess pork, at Fort Leavenworth, at $22 95 per barrel.

—The Kingston Whig says: The frequent earthquake shocks or some other cause has induced the deer in the mountain region between Lake Champlain, the Saranac, the Ausable district, the John Brown's tract, to descend into the plain on the Canadian side of the line. They are so plentiful and tame in the upper part of Huntington as to be seen eating in settler's barnyards with the cattle.

—Among the speakers who will take part in the New Hampshire campaign, on the Democratic side, we notice the name of Emerson Etheridge. Also, Geo. H. Pendleton, Senator Doolittle, D. W. Vorhees, Montgomery Blair, Henry Clay Dean and E. F. Pillsbury.

REGISTRATION.

We have inquired repeatedly of our acquaintances and political friends whether they had obtained their Registration certificates, but have uniformly received for answer, that the Registrar was not yet ready to begin operations. It was reported more than a week ago that Registration would commence immediately, but we have yet to learn that the promise had been redeemed. Neither do we know the cause of procrastination, or whether it is of home-birth, or springs from indifference in higher quarters, or that design and villainy do not narrow down the period for obtaining certificates to the few days antecedent to the election.

It has been hinted that certificates are already "on the wing," but restricted to those who are considered faithful to the league-system, or are believed to be unquestionably Radical from the prima facie evidence of color. The Registrar has not taken public notice of this intimation—at least it has escaped our observation if he has. There is one thing of which he and those in his confidence may rest well assured: the Conservative people of Shelby will not submit to equivocation in this matter, by which they may be deprived of their votes and the county be saddled with Radical officers by any such nefarious scheme. It may be all right, but does not look so. When Gubernatorial despotism undertook to annul the former registration and disfranchise the entire voters of Shelby county, if it meant to afford the people an opportunity to recover their rights, the Registrar should have been authorized to commence the performance of his duties at once. Instead of this, we have yet to hear of the first Conservative registered, or that there is a time fixed when men can obtain the privilege that was once imagined to belong to the nativity and domicile. We repeat what we verily believe: the people of Shelby do not intend to be defrauded at the March election, and if he can fill up the certificates let the Registrar commence without farther delay, and if he cannot let him say so.

HUNDREDS of women and children of both sexes crowd our streets daily, begging alms. Oh, for a house of correction—a lodge in some wilderness—where these vagrants could be placed and made to work and help to sustain themselves. Chattanooga Gazette.

A pretty general complaint! We'll take a little of it here at Memphis.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

MORE OF TAX COLLECTION.

GRANT TO BE TELEGRAPHED.

Special Dispatch to Memphis Appeal.

JACKSON, February 13.—The report of the Committee on the Legislative Department has been adopted. It provides that the Legislature shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives—the Senators to be elected four years, Representatives two years.

A telegram from McKee announced that he had had an interview with Gillem, and the tax question was under advisement, and he would report to-morrow.

Castello moved to telegraph Gen. Grant that Gen. Gillem refuses to collect the tax, and ask Grant to order him to do so. Pending which the Convention adjourned.

ARKANSAS.

GEN. GILLEM'S WISH REFUSED.

THE PRINTING CONTRACT, ETC.

Special Dispatch to Memphis Appeal.

LITTLE ROCK, February 13.—In the Convention to-day a communication from Gen. Gillem was read, asking the Convention to change the time of holding the election for State officers and the ratification of the Constitution. The Convention declined to change the time.

Ratcliffe was sworn in.

The report of the Committee on Finance and the majority report of the Committee on the Penitentiary were adopted.

Gantt offered a resolution that no printing under contract with the Convention be done outside of the State, which was voted down.

Brooke, of Phillips, thought the contractors had the right to have printing done in London, if they wanted to do so.

A resolution to pay the two Assistant Secretaries ten dollars per diem, instead of eight, was adopted.

The Convention adjourned until to-morrow.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, February 13.—Trumbull, from the Judiciary Committee, reported a bill to supply vacancies in the Executive Department in certain cases, and gave notice that he would call it up at an early day.

It provides that in case of the death, resignation, or absence by sickness of the head of the Executive Departments, or any officer in either, whose appointment is in the head thereof, the President may authorize the head of any other Executive Department, or other officers, whose appointment is vested in him, with the consent of the Senate, to perform the duties of said offices, until a successor shall be appointed, or the disability ceases; provided, that no vacancy shall be supplied in this manner for a longer term than thirty days.

The bill to close the bridges and road of the New Orleans, Mobile and Chattanoogs railroad post routes, was passed.

The resolution to admit Thomas, of Maryland, was taken up. A substitute was offered that he cannot be permitted to take the oath of office, as is required by the Constitution of the United States, inasmuch as he allowed his minor son to leave the parental roof, and serve as a rebel soldier, and furnished him with a hundred dollars to carry out this purpose, all of which was "aid, encouragement and comfort to the rebellion," which he was forbidden to give, and for which in forbearing to make known to the proper authorities, he is guilty of treason, as defined by an existing law.

Doolittle presented a memorial, signed by one thousand citizens of Alabama, protesting against negro rule, and praying for a continuation of the Military Government over the State. It sets forth many alleged grievances and misrepresentations, and concludes as follows: "Continue over us, if you will do so, your own rule by the sword, send down among us honorable men of your own people, and of the race to which you and we belong, and ungracious and contrary to the wise policy and institutions of the country, and tyrannous as it will be, and no hand will be raised among us to resist by force their authority; but do not, we implore you, abdicate your own rule over us by transferring us to the blighting, brutalizing and unnatural domination of an alien and inferior race, which has never shown any administrative capacity for a good government of even the tribes into which it has always been broken up in its native seats, and which in all ages has itself furnished slaves for all races."

HOUSE.

The House considered the bill concerning the rights of American citizens abroad.

Wilson, of Iowa, moved to refer it to a Committee of the Whole. Rejected.

The motion of Banks to re commit the bill and amendments to the Foreign Committee was adopted.

Miller, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, reported a bill giving a pension of eight dollars per month to every surviving officer and enlisted man who served three months in the military service of the United States in the War of 1812, who were honorably discharged, who during the late rebellion had not adhered to the cause of the enemy of the Government, who can take the test-oath, and who are in circumstances which render them dependant on others for support. During its consideration the morning hour expired and it went over until Tuesday next.

In the election case of the Second Congressional District of Kentucky, the first resolution reported by the Committee on Elections, that Brown was not entitled to the seat, was adopted. Two other resolutions ignoring the claims of Smith, etc, were re-committed.

Donnelly introduced a bill to regulate the disposal of lands which may hereafter be given to aid in the construction of railroads, which was referred. The bill gives all such lands to the States to be sold to actual settlers at prices varying from $1.12 to $5 per acre, according to the distance from the railroads, the proceeds to go to the railroads; and if not sold within ten years, then to be disposed of as other public lands. The sales to settlers are to be on long time, with a view to encourage the settlement of the country. The bill embodies the views of the Committee on Public Lands.

The House then adjourned.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, February 13.—In the Convention to-day, a resolution was offered that no person shall be eligible to any office who has not the qualification required in a voter for members of this Convention; but the Legislature may, by a two-thirds vote, remove such disability. The resolution lays over.

A resolution exempting $1000 worth of property from seizure on any obligation, after the adoption of the Constitution, was referred to the Committee on Style.

An effort was made to take up the reconsideration of the resolution voting thirty per cent. additional pay to the delegates. Judge Cooley spoke forcibly in favor of the reconsideration, representing the evil effects such legislation will have upon the masses when voting for ratification, by demonstrating that there is no necessity for this additional pay. Reagan, who offered the "additional pay" resolution, spoke in defense of it in a very unparliamentary speech, in the course of which he used many personalities and was called a liar by Wallace. The reconsideration was lost by 24 to 40. A resolution was adopted providing for a Board of Registry, consisting of seven members of the Convention, whose duties are to begin as soon as the Convention adjourns, who are to have entire control of the elections, so far as not to conflict with the reconstruction acts.

FROM MEXICO.

GALVESTON, February 13.—The steamer Taylor, from Brownsville, brings Mexican news to the 18th. A revolution is forming in Puebla in the interests of Ortega. Daylight robberies and kidnapping for ransoms are frequent. Gen. Diaz has resigned. The telegraph line between San Luis and Matamoras has been begun. Corona was sent from Guadalajara on the 22d ult. to put down the revolution in Sinaloa Domingo. Rubi has been declared Governor of Mexico Vice Escobedo resigned.

FROM ALBANY.

ALBANY, N. Y., February 13.—In the Assembly to-day a new Metropolitan excise bill was reported, repealing the present act, and vesting the power to grant licenses to sell liquor in the Mayors of New York and Brooklyn. It will be considered to-morrow.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, February 13.—The army nomination to the Senate to-day was that Lieut.-Gen. Sherman is to be General by brevet.

At a meeting of the Reconstruction Committee this morning, Stevens, of Pennsylvania, submitted a resolution to the effect that it appears from the late correspondence between the President and Grant, that the President had violated, or sought to violate the provisions of the Tenure of Office bill, and consequently he is guilty of "high crimes and misdemeanors," for which he ought to be impeached by the House.

The resolution was discussed with much spirit. The point in the debate was whether the President had violated the bill, by an effort to induce Grant to hold the War Department at the disposal of the President, after the Senate by a resolution had restored Stanton. Finally the resolution was tabled by the following vote: Ayes—Bingham, Beaman, Payne, Hulburt, Republicans, and Brooks and Beck, Democrats. Nays—Stevens, Farnsworth and Boutwell.

After the vote, which created considerable excitement, Stevens invited Boutwell and Farnsworth to go to fight with him, in order to take other steps on the subject.

The President has approved and signed the bill allowing taxation by States of the shares of national banks.

Receipts for customs for the week ending on the 8th, $3,178 749; funds in the treasury this morning—coin, $102,675,000; currency, $28,908 000.

A letter received here from an American citizen at Beirant, Syria, dated January 24, says Gen. John C. Breckinridge is there making inquiries in regard to traveling through Syria. He denied any claim to the privileges of a citizen of the United States after he had become affected while in conversation upon the affairs in this country. When asked if he intended to return, he said he had no wish to become a martyr, and should not return until he could do so in personal safety, but no other country could be his home. He said, in reference to affairs, that as the war was over, that the appeal to the sword had been decided against those with whom he had been associated, he was willing to shoulder his gun, like any other man, in defense of his country. He, however, spoke of matters here in the tone of a foreigner.

The same letter states that Jacob Thompson and other leading parties of the South during the late war were wandering about Turkey.

The U. S. Bonds of 1867, which matured on the 31st of December, will, it is understood, be paid on presentation at the Treasury Department, or at the office of the Assistant Treasurer in New York interest being allowed only until the 15th of January last.

The following telegram was read in the Senate to-day by Patterson:

MONTGOMERY, February 13.—Hon. F. Patterson, Senator from Tennessee: The ratification of the Constitution is defeated by over 15,000. What is the prospect for the passage of Sherman's bill, respecting Alabama?

(Signed) D. D. DALTON,
Governor's Secretary.

A RIVAL OF THE STEAM MAN.

A Road Steamer Drawing Sixty Tons on a Good Road.

Edinburg Correspondence London Telegraph.

One object of interest has been occasionally travelling on the roads between Leith and Edinburg for a few weeks past, which I conjecture will continue to be an object of historical interest for the time I have mentioned. It is what is called a road steamer, a machine like a small railway engine set upon three low wheels, one in front and two behind the middle—a machine weighing about five tons, capable of drawing sixty tons at a slow pace on a good road, of going over the roughest road and climbing the steepest, and of traveling over plowed land or the like with the most perfect ease. It was the invention of Mr. R. H. Thompson, C. E., of Edinburg, the inventor of a system of floating docks, of the steam winch, a curious and most effective tertary engine, which was exhibited at the recent Paris exhibition, and attracted much attention there, and of various other ingenious pieces of mechanism. The peculiarity of the new road steamer is that its three wheels are covered with large tires or hoops of India rubber, about five inches thick and two feet broad, being the largest castings of India rubber ever made, and costing each about £50 or £60. The India rubber tires take hold of the ground like an elephant's foot. They spread over hollows and stones, and other obstructions sink into their elastic embrace. In short, they solve the problem of road steamers completely, as also of steamers to go over soft, rough ground, and it is impossible to anticipate all the uses the new tires may be put to in the pursuits of agriculture, or it may be in the operations of war. It has been suggested that these India rubber tires will soon wear, but those which have been used in the experiments hitherto have scarcely sustained a scratch, although they have gone over rough metalled roads at various rates of speed, often much faster than the legal rate of four miles an hour. The only serious lesion as yet was made in one of them when crossing a big ditch over a bridge of a few trees thrown carelessly together. This new road steamer is intended to draw an omnibus in the island of Java, where its inventor for several years resided, and it is now shipped, or about to be shipped, for its destination. I believe, however, it will soon have one or more successors.

—The New Jersey Legislature has rejected a resolution of thanks to Gen. Grant.

—The co-operative movement in New York is proving a success. Within the last twelve months the principle of co-operation, as applied to building among workingmen, has resulted in the formation of two societies, with a membership of five hundred each, and shares covering nearly $3,000,000 have been disposed of.

—The indications that New Hampshire will, at the election in March, wheel square into the Democratic ranks, are of a most encouraging character.

—The new Constitution proposed for adoption in Michigan provides for the imprisonment of parties guilty of a breach of the promise of marriage. This applies to females as well as males. It fixes the penalty, and parties are only required to prove the breach to secure its infliction. No mitigating circumstances are allowed in abatement.

MARRIED.

JNO. M. CARMACK, ESQ., of this city, has been admitted and qualified to practice in the United States District and Circuit Courts at Little Rock, Arkansas.

RECOVERING.—We learn that the man John Cunningham, who was shot on Main street night before last, is slowly recovering, under the care of Dr. Lynch. It is to be hoped he will be up and around ere long.

A STRAY COW.—One of the bovine species was found astray yesterday by the police, and is held awaiting an owner. Further information can be obtained by application at the police headquarters, No. 44 Madison street.

AGAIN.—The Southern Express Company, through their gentlemanly and efficient officer, Mr. Felix Cross, have again laid us under obligations for the latest papers from all points. Thanks, gentlemen. Long may you wave.

AN AMPUTATION.—Deputy Constable W. L. Porter, who was shot some days since in the left arm, had it amputated yesterday at the elbow joint. Dr. Joe. E. Lynch officiated. The wounded man will probably recover. The operation was performed very successfully.

MULE STEALING.—A negro named Jim Sanover was arrested yesterday by the Metropolitan police charged with stealing a mule from Mr. O. B. Parker. The animal was recovered and the accused discharged, there being no prosecution.

SHOOTING AFFRAY.—About twelve o'clock yesterday Jno. Hallum and Jno. Cowden, Esquires, exchanged some five or six shots on Court street, near Second. Nobody was hurt, but very many were badly frightened. The parties were arrested for shooting in the corporation.

HOUSE ROBBERY.—The residence of Dr. McMillan, No. 101 Madison street, was entered last night before lay by a negro woman, who filled her basket with bedding and table linen. She had formerly been a servant in the family. The chief entered and departed by way of a back window.

THE WEATHER.—Yesterday was one of the most pleasant days of the season. The air was salubrious, and the walking good. Large numbers of our most fashionable ladies availed themselves of the opportunity to appear in their fine walking costumes. At the time of our going to press the atmosphere was clear.

REGISTRATION PAPERS.—We learned from Mr. Sears last night, close upon 12 o'clock, that the documents have come at last, and that registration will commence immediately and be conducted with all due diligence. We hope our friends will exercise similar diligence, and keep the Registrar up to his eyes in business.

CARPET STEALING.—Complaint was made at the Adams Street station house yesterday, by one of the colored persuasion named Andrew Jackson, that Avery Chappell had stolen a carpet-sack and contents from him on the levee yesterday afternoon. Avery was arrested by Officer Gallant, and will probably be turned over to a Justice of the Peace to-day.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—Happy Holiow did not fail yesterday to furnish its quota of fights, disturbances, etc. This quarrel—Catherine Coleman as-aulted Mary Phillips, for which Justice Glisson fined the assailant ten dollars and cost. It was paid and all parties went on their way rejoicing.

PERSONAL.—Maj. M. W. Cluskey, formerly of the Avalanche, left last night on the steamer Gen. Quitman for the Crescent City. We hope to greet him again here ere long.

Mr. C. P. Atmore, the efficient agent of the Bellefontaine railroad, paid us a flying visit yesterday, and left on the Quitman. Come back, Charlie.

STEALING A DORO.—Every succeeding day but leads us to believe that negroes will steal anything they can lay their hands on, whether it be animate or inanimate. One of this class of prowlers, who calls himself Henry Blake, was arrested yesterday by officer Cuisick, of the Sanitary Police force, for stealing a black-and-tan purp from John Quinlan. He will give answer in the case this morning.

THE LAST ACT.—The remains of Lieut. A. T. Martin, of Austin's Louisiana battalion of sharpshooters, who was wounded at the battle of Franklin, on the 17th and died on the 28th of December, 1864, were sent to New Orleans for interment, on the steamer Gen. Quitman, last night, by his surviving brother Chas. N. Martin. The deceased was a brave soldier, and a good man. Peace to his ashes.

THE Chattanooga Gazette of the 10th says: "Our city makes money when shows of any kind come around. She makes them pay for their whistle." The same may be said of our city, which charges the circus two hundred and fifty dollars a day for license, but that does not deter the citizens from visiting the circus.

THAT'S SO!—The Pennsylvania papers tell us of the death in Lancaster county, in that State, on the 21st of January, "in his eighty-fifth year," of one Michael Diffenderffer, "who was a soldier in the revolutionary war." He must have been an enterprising baby. The war was over in 1783, when he could not have been a year old. The demise of revolutionary heroes occurs almost as frequently as the death and burial of Gen. Washington's body servant.

A SKIRMISH IN PROSPECT.

Extracts from a Private Letter from a Planter.

A friend exhibited to us the other day a letter received from a Southern planter, who was originally from New York, but for two or three years has been engaged in "trying his luck" on a plantation. He is a fair and square man, and his "papers" show that he is a thorough man of business. He writes without reserve, because he is writing to a friend, without the slightest suspicion that any part of his letter would reach the public eye. From what he says, it is not difficult to estimate the troubles that exist in a greater or less degree on every plantation, and require the utmost vigilance to counteract them. Where such provocations to irritate exist, it is not remarkable that the slow retribution of the law is not depended on, especially while a Bureau more often protects and defends the colored marauder than brings him to justice and punishment. But to the extracts:

I have made all my settlements and squared all up and begin to see daylight. Every body here is snarled up and can make no settlement. I profess to be too smart for such business. My record at headquarters that I have had correct plain papers, and settled fair man fashion with all of my employees, and it has cost me less than it has those fellows that try to shave the poor devil of a negro. * * *

We are on the war path, and I am off of guard. The fact of the case is the niggers have made nothing this year. They are out of clothing, out of money, and out of work, which means out of bread. No one wants to employ them. You see nothing but sullen faces among them. They are stealing and killing the hogs and cattle, and acting very badly. One of the best hands on the place, who has been with us three years (one year on the prairie) came to me and L——, and told us that there was a pot among seven of the niggers to steal to-night from the gin-house the cotton, about three bales. (There are plenty who will buy it from them.) He overheard them making their arrangements. L—— is at the gin-house, and I think has the best of me, but if he don't quit on my watch I'll be d——d if you don't hear of some dea l niggers in the morning, I am mistaken. * * *

I have no time to write you more, for I expect I have to go out and kill a nigger. What a happy people, and what a country! But there is nothing like playing your hand, and I am almost tempted to throw up the cards.

AMUSEMENTS.

NEW MEMPHIS THEATER.—The Black Crook was produced at this theater last night to a large house. The piece ran more smoothly than on the previous evening. The scenery was what might have been expected from Mr. Gulick's brush, while the work of the master machinist, Mr. Do Mdi, filled the bill. Manager Thompson has spared neither pains, labor or expense to give the people of this city a good representation of this great sensation, and right well has he succeeded. We are to have the Black Crook nightly, and for the accommodation of ladies and children a grand matinee will be given on Saturday afternoon.

THE VARIETIES.—This place of amusement was well filled last night by an appreciative audience. The programme was a good one and met with much applause. The many friends of Miss Sallie Eldridge were glad to see her again on the boards.

THE CIRCUS.—The great combination show, consisting of a circus, menagerie, etc., is advertised to open to-day. John Robinson, the old man in the traveling-show business, s the presiding genius. Whatever he indorses is O. K.

OBITUARY.—On the 10th inst. Mrs. M. Doherty departed this life, and her spirit has gone to join the loved ones above. Mrs. Doherty was the widow of the late William Doherty, of Strabane county, of Tyrone, Ireland, of which place she was a native. At her demise she was in the seventy-eighth year of her age, and had resided in Memphis the past forty years. Her remains were deposited in a vault, and will be taken to St. Johns, N. B., for interment, where her son Charles, a prominent lawyer, resides. The bow of Azrael has been bent, and the dark shaft of death has severed the silver cord and removed from the family circle one who, by her genial nature and unostentatious charity, endeared herself to all with whom she was brought in contact. Of a gentle and retiring nature, she was little known in the outer world, but her memory will ever be revered by those who knew her best. The poor were ever welcome at her door, and the kind-hearted and never turned from the door without visible evidence of charity. The deceased suffered not in her last moments. She died as she lived, a true Christian. Her end was peace. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

COMING THIS WAY.—The Nashville Gazette, of the 11th, gives the following: "The strike on the Memphis and Clarksville road accidentally gave us the pleasure of a visit from the Very Rev. J. A. Kelly, who was on his way to Memphis. He left yesterday evening, in company with Father O'Hara, for Chattanooga, Huntsville, and thence to Memphis, where he will remain at St. Peter's Church until further notice. Father Kelly's old friends were glad to see him looking so well and regret his short stay with us." We shall welcome with pleasure the arrival of this clergyman in our midst. The congregation of St. Peter's will doubtless be edified by his counsel and advice.

SOUP HOUSE.—The benefits arising from such an "institution" have been fully tested at Nashville. The Press and Times of the 11th says: "The number of applicants at the soup house has been increasing for several days past. A few able bodied men have recently been among those fed. They stated that they were unable to get any work, and consequently were compelled to resort to this institution for support." We have been fully convinced such an establishment would have done incalculable good at this place, but as yet, although several weeks have elapsed since the suggestion was made, the winter is passing away without any "soup house."

GO FROM HOME TO LEARN THE NEWS.—We copy the following from another paper, which will perhaps be news to Memphians: "The Tuttsville Herald states that two of the Bennehoft robbers were recently arrested in Memphis, Tennessee. The account says that the officer tracked them from Cleveland, followed them into the bank where they deposited $150,000 in greenbacks and bonds, and then had them arrested. It is also rumored that on Friday the detective returned to Petroleum Center, visited the Bennehoffs, and effected an agreement by which he is to receive the sum of $65,000 for the recovery of the money and the conviction of the men under arrest."

COLORED MEN.—We clip the following from the Union street Radical ten by twelve paper. Colored men who look to their own interest should notice this insult offered them by their so-called friends on election days:

The APPEAL has been for a month publishing a "directory of Conservative colored men wanting employment." They must be a lazy set of scoundrels when nobody would employ, or else it don't pay well to be a "Conservative colored man wanting employment." Our merchants know too well to be fooled by any nonsense that honest colored men are Radicals. Perhaps this is an exception.

THE WHITEMORE HOUSE.—This spacious and well regulated hotel has been newly and neatly furnished, and is altogether one of the best in the city. The fare is excellent, attention unexceptionable, and every comfort is enjoyable, desired by the most fastidious taste. The price of day board has been reduced to the unusually low price of six dollars per week, which is in strong contrast with the rates of our other hotels, while Mr. Whitemore neglects no means or expense to make it equal to any in the city. We commend it to the consideration of our readers.

VALENTINE'S DAY.—We do not know how well this day is honored here, but elsewhere the times have been the Post-office did a P. O. business in distributing missives from tender youth's to their Valentines; but as this is Leap Year, the young and unmarried ladies will have an opportunity of displaying their taste. We believe that a fair assortment of these tender missives have been brought here by Emmons & Son, but have not heard of extensive sales. This is the day for a good deal to be done in the way of exchanges of hearty vows. A cotemporary has furnished us some of the particulars of the early times of the custom, of which we avail ourself, in the absence of such leisure as would have enabled us to gather up the crumbs from such annals as might be within our reach. We all remember the old refrain:

"Young man rise early the morn of Valentine
When birds begin to mate"

but Dame Durden may be found in any of the old song books:

Sending Valentines is one of the very few old customs not on the wane; and the streets of our city have heretofore borne evidence of this fact in their display of these love messages. Our readers may ask for its origin, and there we are at a loss. The events of St. Valentine's life furnish no clue whatever to the mystery. The "Dictionary of Archaisms" says that any lover was termed a Valentine; not necessarily an affianced lover, as suggested in Hampson's Calendarium." Lydgate, the poet of Bury, in the fifteenth century, thus mentions this practice:

"Saint Valentine, of custom yearly year
Throughout the realm, upon his festival day,
To look and search Cupido's calendars,
And choo e their choice by great affection;
* * * * * * *
Taking their choices as they let doth fall:
But I avouche which excelleth all."

The divinations practiced on Valentine's day is a curious subject. Herrick mentions one by rose-buds:

"She must na more a-maying;
Or by rose-buds divine
Who'll be her Valentine."

Perhaps the poet may allude to a practice similar to the following, which was given us by friend ——: "Last —— was Valentine day; and the night before I got five bay leaves and pinned four of them to the four corners of my pillow, and the fifth to the middle; and then I dreamt of my sweetheart; Betty said we would be married before the year was out. But to make it more sure, I boiled an egg hard, and took out the yolk, and filled it with salt; and then I went to bed and eat it shell and all, without speaking or drinking after it. We also wrote our lover's names upon bits of paper and rolled them up in clay, and put them into water, and the first that rose up was to be our Valentine. Would you think it? Mr. —— was my man. I lay abed and shut my eyes all the morning till he came to me, for I would not have seen another man before him for all the world." According to Mother Bunch, the following lines should be said by the girl on retiring to rest the previous night:

"Sweet guardian angels, let me have
What I most earnestly do crave,
A Valentine this night I pray
That will both kind and constant prove."

We believe the old custom of drawing lots on this eventful day is obsolete, and has given place to the favorite practice of sending pictures with poetical legends to objects of love or ridicule. The lower classes, however, seldom treat the matter with levity, and many are the offers of marriage that is made.

Many curious customs are related by different writers in honor of this day, but of all the quotations that could be made, none is more quaint and striking than the following from the pen of the celebrated ——, sent as a valentine:

"Fair lady, whosoe'er thou art,
Turn this poor leaf with tender care,
And—hush, oh, hush! be dumb as fear.—
The one thou lovest wi l be there!"

On turning the "poor leaf" there was found a one dollar note with some verses beginning:

"Fair lady lift this leaf and tell
If this is not a truthful letter;
This is the thou lovest well,
And naught on can make thee love it better.
(10.)"

The clerks at the post-offices are to be pitied, the immense increase of letters beyond the usual average adding very inconveniently to their labors.

The Sheriffalty.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

In view of the meeting of the Nominating Convention to-day, we beg leave to suggest the name of Wm. C. Postal, in connection with the office of Sheriff. In presenting his name, we feel the greatest confidence that our candidate is as free from objections, and combines as many elements of success as can be found in any individual. Conservative Convention.

The action of the committee changing the apportionment of delegates, and the Legislature having under consideration bills providing for the division of the Clerkship of the Common Law and Criminal Courts of Memphis, and for creating the offices of Collector of State and County Taxes on Privileges and Recorder for the County Commissioners, which will doubtless become law, has rendered it necessary that the committee should modify the call heretofore published, so as to read as follows:

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL,
MEMPHIS, February 13, 1868.

Outside the regular transactions in Exchange there was very little doing in money matters to-day. Exchange is abundant on all points—largely in excess of demand—while currency comes in at irregular periods and not in quantities sufficient to cause much ease in the cotton market. Eastern bills are taken at ½ to ¾c discount. Selling at par. New Orleans sight is in very light demand at ¼c premium selling. Buying at ¼c discount.

Gold opened in New York at 141¾c, and at noon had declined to 141¼c. Dealers bought a few small lots during the day at 139c.

City Scrip is declining with very light transactions. We could learn of no offerings, while dealers proposed to sell at 40 to 42c.

County Warrants are unchanged. Selling at 60 to 62c. Brokers not buying.

Police Scrip is firm at 80 to 82c buying. Selling at 84 to 85c.

The Liverpool cotton market was active to-day at the opening with estimated sales of 15,000 bales, Uplands 8¼d, Orleans 8¾d, Uplands to arrive 8¼d. This was the only dispatch received up to the close of business. In New York at the opening holders were asking an advance and buyers were cautious. Quotations nominally unchanged. At noon the market was very firm and holders asking higher rates with buyers waiting for further advices from Liverpool. At 2 p.m. the demand was moderate and prices firm at previous quotations and holders asking an advance of ¼ to ⅜c. At the close the market was irregular—sellers firm and buyers cautious. Our market was very quiet during the day and prices of yesterday evening not sustained, though many holders were firm. They asked 20c for Middlings, but sales were made mostly on a basis of 19½c. We quote:

Ordinary	16@16¾17
Good Ordinary	17@17¾18
Low Middling	18@18¾19
Middling	19@19¾—
Strict Middling	20@20¾—

$34,500 IN PREMIUMS.

NUMBER of PRIZES, 25.
CERTIFICATES, $5 EACH.

A Fortune or a Homestead for $5.

CAPITAL PRIZE VALUED AT $20,000 00

Which amount has recently been offered for the Springs and grounds immediately surrounding.

PRIZE NO. 1.

The celebrated Raleigh Mineral Springs, situated on the confines of Raleigh, late County Seat of Shelby county, Tenn., fifteen miles north east of Memphis, and two miles from Wells' Station, on the Memphis and Louisville Railroad. These Springs are six in number, all of various mineral and medicinal qualities, and are visited every Summer by thousands of seekers of health and pleasure, from all quarters of the country. They are within a few steps of the village of Raleigh, in a beautiful valley, and also within a few hundred feet of Wolf river, which winds around the base of the mound on which the village of Raleigh is situated, and empties into the "Father of Waters" at Memphis. Numerous wonderful cures of various diseases have been experienced by sojourners at this health-inspiring retreat, and the present proprietor, Col. J. M. Coleman, can produce hundreds of certificates of cures in cases which had been given entirely over by medical skill. The ground surrounding the Springs, and in fact the entire village of Raleigh, is to an eminence of pure and dry sand as remarkable for its healthfulness as beauty of location. The springs are in the order, never failing, and are designated as follows:

MAGNETIC SPRING.
BOX SPRING.
MAGNOLIA SPRING.
ARSENIC SPRING.
SULPHUR SPRING.
FREESTONE SPRING.

The place has never been visited by epidemic of any kind, and peculiarly characterized for its healthfulness in the longevity of its inhabitants. The oldest citizens of Shelby county are residents of Raleigh.

The Springs are as much resorted to by pleasure seekers as by invalids, owing to beauty of scenery and various artificial as well as natural attractions. Connected with the Springs are a Pavilion, Ladies' Bow ing Alley, Restaurant, Refreshment Saloon, Gents' Bowling Alley, Saloon, Billiard Room, Gymnasium, Refreshment Tables, etc., while Wolf river affords excellent Boating and Fishing.

The ground accompanying the Springs, in the above scheme and included in the First Prize, is fifteen acres in extent, overlooking the valley and affords in addition to many other attractions for a grand hotel and other buildings; splendid facilities for a park, promenades, etc.

As a signal of the several Springs, by distinguished medical men, shows that they are unsurpassed in mineral and curative properties by any in the United states. There is no reason then why Raleigh should not become as famous as Saratoga, Sharon or Lebanon, and as largely patronized. It needs only capital and enterprise to accomplish it and more.

A charter is before the State Legislature for the incorporation of the Springs and a movement has been inaugurated looking to direct rail communication with Memphis.

For this prize, $20,000 was recently offered, which was declined in order that the above scheme may be fully carried out.

PRIZE NO 2.

The elegant country mansion house and lot residence of Col. J. M. Coleman is within a few yards of the Springs. The house is in first class order, contains 10 rooms and is beautifully embowered in shrubbery. The lot is well fenced and ornamented with shade and fruit trees, and affords all necessary outhouses, stable, etc. It is many degrees cooler in Spring Valley, on the main promenade. Value $8000.

PRIZE NO. 3.

One thousand dollars in cash.

PRIZE NO. 4 TO 25.

Twenty-two cottage lots valued at $250 each. These lots are a portion of the village of Raleigh, delightfully situated, all fronting on the Springs and will be drawn with the understanding that the winners shall have free access at all times to the Springs and belongings.

Details of the Drawing.

Six thousand seven hundred tickets, representing the certificates of lots issued, will be placed in one wheel, and the same number of blanks, including twenty five hundred and with the names of the premiums, will be placed in another. From those wheels tickets will be drawn at the same time, and the number drawn first will take the premium drawn simultaneously.

Full moneys received upon the sale of these shares will be placed in the German National Bank of Memphis, and will remain there to the credit of the Association until the drawing takes place.

POPULAR WORKS ON FREEMASONRY
PUBLISHED BY THE MASONIC PUBLISHING
—AND—
MANUFACTURING COMPANY,
432 Broome Street, New York.

LITURGY OF THE ANCIENT AND ACCEPTED RITE of Freemasonry, for the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States. By Albert Pike, 33d, Sov. Grand Commander. Splendidly illustrated with Chromo-lithographic plates and numerous wood engravings, Part I. now ready, 8vo, 344 pages, $3 00.

☞ It would perhaps seem unnecessary after giving the above Title-page to say anything further in the way of recommendation. The name of the author should of itself be a sufficient guarantee of its worth. It does, however, his learning and contributions has done as much to elevate the standard of Masonic literature and extend its principles as any other living man. This book, in its particular department, may justly be declared a standard-piece, embracing matter not only useful to the Masonic student of every grade, but to men of science in the highest literary field of the present age. Notwithstanding this book has been preceded by several works of character, for its Author, Pike alone is due the honor of first explaining this branch of Masonic literature, and of opening to the admiration of the Craft the vast storehouse of knowledge and beauty. This work contains the degrees of the ancient and accepted Rite from the fourth to the fourteenth inclusive, and is elegantly illustrated with chromo-lithograph engravings, showing all the jewels, costume, furniture, etc., belonging to each degree. No expense has been spared in getting it up, and it is without doubt the most elegant, as well as one of the most useful books, ever offered to the Fraternity.

Published and for sale by the Masonic Publishing and Manufacturing Company, 432 Broome street, New York, and Booksellers generally in the United States.

☞ Copies of the above for the Memphis Brethren are ready for delivery at the Editorial Rooms of the APPEAL, 14 Jefferson street, upstairs. 1w jan29

Our Latest Improved
NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.
GROVESTEEN & CO.,
499 Broadway, N. Y.,

THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has also been our policy, during the thirty-six years we have been manufacturing Pianos, to use the utmost of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than other First Class Pianos.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar sweetness and Great Brilliancy, Never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The Touch, while retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the mind's and upper regions by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the melody of tone being equally delightful to the appreciative ear to the most distant.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most elegant manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre serpentine Base richly moulded. Each and each Instrument is fully warranted for five years.

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

From the Louisville Sunday Democrat.]

A VALENTINE.

The opening year has brought again the feast
Of Valentine;
The day for youth its garland flowers to lay at
beauty's shrine;
And here, to-day, this little wreath of primitive song I bring—
Oh! be propit ous, gentle maid, unto my offering.

In fancy's dreams a chapel stands, all dimly lighted, where
The crimson flood and music's tones with music fill the air;
Thine image, a Madonna, stands in sculptured niche, and there
To that sweet picture love repeats its vesper hymn and prayer.

Oh! when the morning wakes the day into its brightest birth,
And countless thousand gems of light upon the dewy earth,
I then recall thy brighter smile that, shining from afar,
Lights up my long and desert path like hope's bright morning star.

And when the evening's last sweet smile is fading in the West,
And clouds float o'er the sinking day, in crimson-tinted rest,
Thine image from those evening clouds in pencil-
Entrancing all my eager sight into its fondest dreams.

When night wide o'er the slumbering world
unrolls her sable path,
And a hen the starlit night's fairy beams with special shadows fall,
Then, crowned with pearly radiant light, thou com'st,
an angel from above,
To light again my sleeping dreams with more than earthly love.

* * * * * * * *

The story of Medusa old, thyself, too, long hast known—
The wondrous beauty that transfixed, yet chilled the heart to stone.
Ah! still, the fable is too true—that power yet is thine—
But though it cannot speak; oh! gentle maid, let not that fate be mine.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Noon Dispatches.

NEW YORK, February 13.—A Washington special says that no official dispatches has been received from Hancock tendering his resignation.

A Times special says that Thad. Stevens has prepared a strong report recommending the preferment of articles of impeachment in the House, which he says he is determined to push through the committee. At a meeting to day one of the Democratic members of the committee expressed the opinion that Mr. Stevens' report would be agreed to.

The World's special says that the town of Erwin has just elected A. J. Fox, (Dem.) Supervisor. This town gave Fenton fifty majority in 1864. In 1866 Nelson, Democratic candidate for Secretary of State, received fifteen majority, a gain of sixty five in one year in a vote of 387, and now Supervisor Fox is elected by twenty-five majority—a gain of ten more.

Richards' parsefine works, in Brooklyn, burned last night. James Brough was burned to death, and two other men seriously, if not fatally injured.

The Herald's special states that the election in Ogdensburg resulted in a Democratic majority of 70; a gain of over 300 since the late election.

BINGHAMPTON, N. Y., February 13. The charter election for town electors, Broome county and this city, took place to-day. Jacob F. Rice (Democrat) was elected Mayor of Binghampton City by 155 majority. The vote on the other city candidates was more evenly divided.

MONTGOMERY, February 13.—A special says there is a plan on foot in the Senate to count out a sufficient registered votes to carry the Constitution. The real majority against it is about 20,000. Yesterday orders were given to reopen the polls in five counties for five days.

The President of the Convention is in the city and it is understood to be his purpose to issue certificates upon the ratification of the new Constitution and the election of candidates running under it.

The Government issued a circular this morning, exhorting the people to pay their taxes, in order to uphold the State and keep up State institutions.

HAVANA, February 12.—Advices from Manzanilla state that a severe drouth is retarding the tobacco growth. The probabilities are the crop will be half short.

Ristori has received a letter from the Emperor of Brazil, offering a free passage for herself and troupe to Rio Janeiro, and also to use the Imperial Theater in that capital.

Preliminary lectures will be given daily in the Charity Hospital, commencing October 26th, at which time full, complete and thorough clinical instruction, also the new and extensive rooms for practical Anatomy will be opened. The facilities of the hospital, heretofore unsurpassed, have, by the special, benevolent action of the present Legislature, been greatly increased during the past session, so that now every chair has attached to it a Practical Department, in which students are taught to observe for themselves the facts set forth in the lecture room.

Fees for all the Lectures, $140: Matriculation (paid but once) $5; Practical Anatomy, $5. Payment required in advance. For further information address
